NOTICE

Students are reminded to take note of the following points for their welfare.

1. All personal belongings/properties of the student are the responsibility of the students themselves. The students must ensure their safety and upkeep of their possession during class hours or when the students are inside the University campus.
2. The CCTV coverage cannot be expected on the basis of 360° and 24x7 since it is an educational institution and not a prison system. It is designed in the pattern of covering general access to the University buildings especially during night time so as to monitor overall entry and exit from the main ingress and egress points of the buildings such as stairs, ramps, corridors, etc.
3. Therefore, while efforts will be made to detect responsibility of any theft committed within its jurisdiction but the University cannot assure or mandates success of such efforts.
4. To access such redressal mechanism the aggrieved student is to approach the Dean of Student Affairs through an application and follow the protocol as laid out by the Dean.

Professor Charles Mhonthung Ezung

Dean of Student Affairs
