It is a blessing to be born into this amazing family
and to have you in my life.

EDITORIAL

Dear friends,

The team of editors conveys greetings to everyone.

SJU NewsBites of this issue will carry the theme "Appreciate all parents throughout the world" based on Global Day of Parents, 2022. The editors are pleased to share few reflections on this theme.

Global Parents Day is celebrated on June 1 every year to honor all parents around the world for their selfless commitment and lifelong sacrifice they make for their children. Parents are the most precious gifts for children. They are our true guardian angels who show unconditional love. Whether it be mental, physical, social, financial, or career development, parents are always there to help us in making crucial decisions in our life. As anchors of a family, one of the building blocks of our society, parents carry the huge responsibility of ensuring the overall wellbeing of all the members and also shielding them from any kind of harm. They do not just ensure the best possible economic and social security for their children as they grow but also contribute significantly to making them good human beings. They ensure that the children's health, education and emotional wellbeing are taken care of.

For all human beings, living in a family, being able to track and take care of every family member's mental and physical health, and assisting one another through tough times is the basis of this year's theme. Not only parents but grandparents and great-grandparents are also a part of the Global Parents Day.

To bring a smile to the face of your parents, spend the day with them and give them the love and respect they have given you over the period of time. The editorial team urges everyone to show gratitude and respect to the elderly. Be their friends and companions and take the front seat.

The editorial team wishes to extend gratitude to all of you for your continued support and wish you a delightful day.

Gratefully,
Editors
