

Course Code	Course Name	Credits
26HS444	COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT SERVICES	02

Course Description

This course applies historical knowledge to benefit society through community-oriented activities, fostering social responsibility and cultural awareness. Students engage in heritage projects, local history research, and outreach initiatives that connect academic study with real-world communities

Course Objectives.

- To empower history students to actively contribute to society by applying historical knowledge and research skills in community settings
- To foster social responsibility, cultural sensitivity, and civic awareness
- To encourage participation in heritage preservation and conservation activities
- To promote documentation and study of local histories and traditions
- To engage students in outreach initiatives that benefit the community
- To enable students to connect the past with present community needs
- To support the development of inclusive and diverse historical understanding

Skill Enhancement Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this course, the learner will be able to:

- Apply and evaluate historical knowledge to address community needs
- Analyze and document local histories, traditions, and cultural practices
- Engage in heritage preservation and community outreach activities
- Communicate historical insights effectively while collaborating with diverse groups

Content and Activities

- Identify community and heritage service areas
- Conduct local history awareness programs in schools, religious institutions and villages
- Hold sessions on local history and cultural heritage
- Run heritage and conservation awareness campaigns
- Document historical sites, traditions, and oral histories in the field
- Participate in history exhibitions, seminars, and workshops
- Prepare reports after each field visit or activity
- Submit final documentation and presentation of the project

Learning Outcome

Students will be able to identify and use local heritage resources, conduct basic fieldwork to document local histories and traditions, and understand the importance of heritage conservation. They will also participate in awareness programs, present historical findings, and work collaboratively in community projects, religious tolerance, contributing to cultural preservation and societal development.

