

Course Code	Course Name	Credits
26RD888	Field Practicum-I	02

Course Description

Field practicum course transforms theoretical knowledge into professional, hands-on capabilities. Some of the key skill enhancement outcomes include intervention planning, empathetic communication, resource mobilization, and critical self-reflection. It equips students with the practical competence required for macro and micro-level social work.

Course Objectives

- To imbue the values and ethics of social work profession through field practicum.
- To acquire skills of systematic observation, critical analysis and develop a spirit of inquiry.

Skill Enhancement Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this course, the learner will be able to:

- Translating classroom theory into practice by assessing individual, group, or community needs
- Evaluate social development policies, programmes, and indicators in India.
- Assessment of indicators of human/ sustainable development at the community level and plan community development accordingly.
- Identifying, networking, and securing necessary governmental, NGO, or community resources for clients.
- Developing the ability to accept constructive feedback, consult with field instructors, and apply it to professional growth.
- Practicing personal reflection to maintain professional boundaries, ethics, and values even in highly stressful.
- Mastering the art of writing professional case records, reports, and policy briefs.

Course Content and Activities

- Identification of organization
- Orientation visit to minimum five organization
- Report writing and maintain field work diary
- Assignment and workshop
- Assessment through field work report and viva voce.

Learning Outcome

- Student will develop practice competence as social work practice within the organization, the community as well as the social work skills of assessment, planning and evaluation, and the professionalism
- Learn how to develop self awareness and self discipline sufficient to enable students to apply their knowledge, values and skills when working with individual, family, community and society level.